Chamber goes back to two meetings per month

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce has gone back to its original two-meetings-per-month format, after a three month trial of holding one meeting monthly. It was felt that two meetings per month give the group more continuity. The Chamber also agreed at their June 5 meeting to hold meetings during July and August, rather than shutting down as they have in previous years.

The Chamber's membership drive has been delayed and is reverting back to a mail-out campaign. Invoices will be going out this week and should be returned by June 30.

Faida Osinchuk, Harriet Gibbard and Allan Sweeny of Lakeland College visited Chamber to introduce their Student Connection program, which is aimed at merging businesses onto the information highway by introducing them to internet. Student Connections is a federally funded program, and has Lakeland College as one of its hosts. Fourteen Lakeland College students and recent graduates are trained and ready to assist businesses with learning how the internet can help them. Four service options are available, depending on what computer hardware a client has, and three of them are available at a nominal $100 fee, in return for which the participant receives between $3000 and $4000 worth of services and materials, including up to three days of training, software and two to three months of free internet access. Anyone interested in learning more about the program may pick up a brochure and information sheet at the Elk Point Review office. Florence Drobot of Florence's Country Crafts won the visitors' Netscape draw.

SPAA JUNIOR FASTBALL CHAMPS -- F. G. Miller Crusaders brought home the St. Paul Athletic Association Junior Boys Fastball banner last Thursday, after a 15-8 trouncing of Glen Avon. The FGM girls lost out to Glen Avon in the final inning of their hard-fought final.

Elk Point 4-Hers capture trophies at district show

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club came home with a number of awards from the District 4-H Steer Show in St. Paul last week, including two for the club as a whole, seven individual awards and two honorable mentions.

The club's outstanding Stall Display, which included a full-sized chuckwagon decorated with the 4-H logo and 4-H pledge, won the United Feeds Ltd. award. The wagon was donated to the club by Allen and Lucille Smith, in memory of their son Bruce, a member of the club who died in a tragic accident last fall.

The Club Judging team of Tim Havener, Peter Danyluk, Robyn Danyluk and Taralee Babenek received the Todd Wowk Esso trophy for their prowess in that category.

Elk Point members topped both age categories in the Individual Judging, with Claudia Naber winning the Senior first place ribbon and Amanda Wirsta the Junior first place ribbon. David Naber and George Danyluk received honorable mentions in the two categories. Brad Ambler of Goodridge was second in the Senior category, while Laurent St. Arnault of St. Paul was second place Junior.

Both top grooming awards came to Elk Point, with Kelly Orr receiving the Farm Credit Corp. trophy in the Junior division, and Tim Havener the Smyl Motors trophy in the Senior group. Michael Fontaine of St. Paul was second in the

BCDC services come to Elk Point

The door of opportunity will open for many Elk Point and area residents on June 12 when the St. Paul / Smoky Lake Business and Community Development Corporation (BCDC) opens a part-time office in the Elk Point Town Office.

The BCDC is a Community Futures Corporation, operating under the direction of the federal government's Western Diversification department. Its purpose is to improve economic conditions by providing business counselling and lending services to existing and new businesses; promoting specific industries such as tourism when requested by communities, and encouraging individuals and communities to share information and resources.

The Corporation removes many of the roadblocks for existing small businesses and smooths the way for individuals who want to make the switch from dependence on employers to the self-sufficiency of self-employment.

"We are very interested in seeing the community grow, and can sometimes provide the necessary capital to turn dreams into realities, provided those dreams have a reasonable expectation of success," says Wendy Cherniwchan, Assistant General Manager.

Ms Cherniwchan, who will provide the basic services in Elk Point, has 13 years experience in the banking industry and is a small business owner. Much of her experience has been gained in the St. Paul / Smoky Lake area, giving her an excellent understanding of local opportunities for business and community development. Shew will help BCDC clients prepare business plans and applications for business loans and provide advice on the client / banker loan interview. Up-to-date information on government support programs is also available through use of the Internet.

The BCDC also provides marketing services including development of marketing, advertising and promotional plans. In its effort to provide support for small businesses, it offers promotional services including media relations and design, production and distribution of promotional material. All services are supplied by specialists with many years of experience in small business development.

"If you have an idea for a small business or community enhancement project, we may be able to help you make it happen," says Ms Cherniwchan.

The Elk Point BCDC office will be open every Wednesday afternoon, by appointment only. Appointments may be made by telephoning Curt Svendsen at the Elk Point Town Office, 724-3810.

Junior, and Lisa Miller of St. Lina was second in the Senior competition.

Elk Point swept the Senior Showmanship. Robyn Danyluk was first for the St. Paul Credit Union trophy, while Tim Havener was second for the Treasury Branch trophy. Jackie Marcoux brought home the Junior second place award, also from the Treasury Branch, after she was edged out by Roxane Lafrance of St. Paul.

Daily Gain was won by Brent Bacque of St. Lina, whose steer gained 3.52 lb. per day.

Three Elk Point steers were selected for the championship competition during weight class judging. Ryan Merkel, Monica Naber and Kelly Orr were among the elite group of finalists who returned to the ring for one last inspection by the judge, who picked steers entered by Michael Fontaine, St. Paul, for Grand Champion and Patrick Marcoux, St. Paul, for Reserve Champion. These steers sold for $1.85 and $1.24 respectively.

Elk Point's club champion, shown by Peter Danyluk, sold for $1.70 to E-Can Oilfield Services, the seventh annual grand champion purchased by that firm. Monica Naber's reserve champion, sold to Tarsands Steam Cleaning for $1.50 a pound, well ahead of the show average of $.975.

From the FCSS Desk...

Father's Day is Sunday, June 16, 1996

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

I am sure all of us will make sure we will give "Dad" a call, or send a card and wish him Happy Father's Day. But to go on beyond that, some of us may find it a little difficult. Our mothers are the ones we find easy to hug and say "Thanks, Mom, for all you have done."

It takes only a moment, but maybe it will be long remembered by the brave front of our fathers. A famous Family Therapist, Virginia Satir, once said: "We need four hugs a day for survival. We need eight hugs a day for maintainence. We need 12 hugs a day for growth." Boy, oh boy, is that ever a lot of hugs.

Recently, while talking to Carolyn Onusko of the Parkview Extended Care, she kindly shared this poem with me, entitled "HUGGING."

"Hugging is healthy; It helps the body's immune system, it cures depression, it reduces stress, it induces sleep, it's invigorating, it's rejuvenating, it has no unpleasant side effects and hugging is nothing less than a miracle drug. Hugging is all natural; it is organic, naturally sweet and 100% wholesome. It contains no pesticides, no preservatives, and no artificial ingredients. Hugging is practically perfect: there are no movable parts, not batteries to wear out, no periodic checkups, no insurance requirements, and no monthly payments. It has low-energy consumption and high-energy yield. It is inflation-proof, non-fattening, theft-proof, nontoxic, nonpolluting and of course, fully returnable."

Remember, our Dad doesn't have to be the first person to do the hugging — we can hug him first — we will be giving a service to our Dad. As Martin Luther King Jr. said: "A Simple Gesture: Everybody can be great... because anybody can serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve, you only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love." Let us think of ways we can serve our dads — not only on Father's Day — but throughout the year.

In conclusion, if you can't see your Dad this Father's Day, call him. Another poem: "'Just Say It' If you were going to die soon and had only one phone call you could make, who would you call and what would you say? Anyway, why are you waiting?" By Stephen Levine.

Happy Father's Day, Dads everywhere!

Congratulations, 4-Hers on another great year

Congratulations to the Elk Point 4-H MultiClub on their excellent efforts, both at club level and at the interclub shows.

A lot of hard work on behalf of members, leaders and parents goes into the 4-H year, and the results are clearly evident after the past two weekends.

What these members have learned to do by doing -- the 4-H motto -- is well worth learning, for now and for the future. Keep up the good work, everyone!

TIC talk

By Sherry Pelech

Tourist Information Clerk

As we mentioned last week, the Tourist Information Centre (TIC) has been waiting for the new BC information to arrive. We are happy to tell you that the Accommodation Guides and Travel Guides are now here. We are still waiting for the 1996 BC maps, however.

We also have recently received the 1996 Tourist Guide for Northwest Saskatchewan and Northeast Alberta, The Call of the Loon. This magazine offers a look at the events and attractions of our local area. Museums, golf courses, lakes, fishing, parks, historic sites, galleries, histories and calendars of events are all discussed in this informative publication.

We were very surprised to learn from an article on the Whitney Lakes Provincial Park, that tails have been developed at Whitney Lake. (We're assuming this is a misprint? If not, we want pictures.)

And speaking of the Provincial Parks, we now have the 1996 campground prices. The parks personnel are pleased to announce a $2 drop in prices at Ross Lake from last year. Because they have introduced pay showers (bring loonies) the cost of camping at Ross Lake is now only $13 ($11 for seniors) a night - including firewood - on weekends. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, the price is $11 ($9 for seniors). They have also installed 18 new electrical hookups. These sites are still only $15 a night, $2 less for seniors and on weekdays.

The other campsites at Kehiwin and Whitney are the same as last year: $11 a night at Whitney, $9 for seniors weekends and Mondays, $9 ($7 for seniors) during the rest of the week; $9 a night at Kehiwin, $7 for seniors weekends and Mondays, $7 ($5 for seniors) during the week. (We have written this up so that it is all very clear and makes good sense -- honestly!)

CLUB DEDICATES SHOW DISPLAY TO A FORMER MEMBER -- The Elk Point 4-H Multi Club's prizewinning Stall Display, which included a chuckwagon adorned with 4-H logos and the 4-H pledge, was dedicated to Bruce Smith, a member of the club who died in a tragic accident last fall. The wagon was donated to the club by his parents.

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club news

By Lorraine Danyluk

4-H Leader

Thank you to Vicki Brooker and the Elk Point Review for the coverage of our Achievement Day. It was a very busy weekend in town. The club is very grateful for the community support shown. Thank you Robin, Tara and Shamrock Valley Enterprises for purchasing the steer raised in memory of Bruce Smith.

Our club has grown dramatically this year; 14 or our 26 members were showing cattle for the first time. It has been expensive to equip the calves and kids for showtime. Many volunteer hours were spent upgrading stalls to make them safe and presentable for the St. Paul show. Lucille and Allen Smith donated a wagon to our club for use as a stall display and in the parade. We were very proud to win the Stall Display award in the St. Paul District Steer Show and Sale on Monday, June 3.

Our judging team of Tim Havener, Robyn Danyluk, Taralee Babenek and Peter Danyluk won Club Judging for the second year in a row. In individual judging, Claudia Naber (Sr.) and Amanda Wirsta (Jr.) placed first and David Naber (Sr.) and George Danyluk (Jr.) received honorable mention. Club members placed well in grooming and showmanship: Grooming, Tim Havener (Sr.) 1st, Kelly Orr (Jr.) 1st. Showmanship, Robyn Danyluk (Sr.) 1st, Tim Havener (Sr.) 2nd, Jackie Marcoux (Jr.) 2nd.

All our members (and parents) are to be commended for their hard work and effort. They should be truly proud of what they have accomplished this year. We have experienced a few growing pains, it has been great to welcome new families who share their valuable resources and energy.

Our club received a bundle of Siberian Larch treelings and planted them north of the Baptist Church on June 1.

Buried in Stone by Eric Wright features retired Toronto cop Mel Pickett. Pickett's idyllic functioning, is heading for Bajor and has warned the inhabitants to evacuate the planet or die with it in Objective: Bajor by John Peel from Star Trek: Deep Space Nine.

Young Garion learns that he is destined for adventure in Pawn of Prophecy by David Eddings, the first book in the Belgariad.

The decapitated body of Grodoveth, the king's envoy, is found and it seems everyone in town had either motive or opportunity in Murder in Cormyr, a fantasy mystery by Chet Williamson.

Whitney Lakes Park news

The provincial park at Whitney Lakes is in full swing again for the summer. Located 27 km east of Elk Point, this park has many unique features that make it an excellent spot for the entire family.

If you have never been to Whitney Lakes before, here are just a few of the highlights you can expect. With land formations and lakes sculpted by retreating glaciers thousands of years ago, Whitney Lakes has been described as a "time capsule from the ice age." The four lakes within the park boundaries offer visitors a wide range of activities, including swimming, fishing and boating. For hiking enthusiasts, you will find an abundance of trails. The Ross Lake Trail is a self-guided interpretive trail which winds through wetlands and forest.

Whitney Lakes also offers excellent camping in secluded sites surrounded by trees. Returning visitors will notice that there are some new attractions this year, including 18 electrical hookups at Ross Lake Campground and lower fees on most campsites due to the introduction of pay showers. A new hiking and biking trail connects Ross Lake with Whitney Lake and the rest of the trail system in the park. Nature interpretation programs like guided hikes and campfire events will be held every weekend.

Interpretive Ranger Alana Felker hopes that more local residents take time to discover Whitney Lakes. She comments that she "hopes local people as well as travellers will come out to the interpretation programs to learn more about this special place — and to be entertained a bit too!"

This summer, in addition to serving all visitors once they arrive at the park, there will be a drive to attract more tourists to Whitney Lakes and the surrounding area. "Our efforts will be mostly centred on Lloydminster residents and people travelling through on Highway 16," says Ranger In Charge Kerry Hope. "Lloyd is only about an hour away and many people from that city don't know about all we have to offer in this area."

Find out for yourself what Whitney Lakes has to offer! For more information, contact the park office at 943-3761.

On the ball

A good week for the Whitesox who played Tuesday night at home and trounced the team from Lac La Biche 17-3 in the drizzling rain. Whitesox bats were hot with home runs from Lee Kadutski, Tyler Warawa and BJ Tucker, who leads the team with 4 home runs for the season.

Saturday morning the Whitesox travelled to Two Hills to play in an 11-team league tournament, losing their first game to the home team from Two Hills, losing in the last inning after leading for most of the game. Then on Sunday, the boys played a great game against Cold Lake Cardinals, beating them 5-0. Lee Kadutski pitched a no-hitter, setting up Denny Hudy who came in to close the game, shutting down 3 straight batters and sending them to Sunday's final where the Whitesox lost to the undefeated team from Kikino in the A final.

This week the Whitesox travel to Kikino on Tuesday night hoping to knock off the league leaders, then on Saturday, they play in Cold Lake for a 2-day league tournament.
